Food Safety and Standards Authority of India said that the new standards of food supplements are in the final stage of notification and will be shortly notified post Government approval. (PT Celebrating a successful journey of two decades the Indian Direct Selling Association (IDSA) commemorated a gala event where Pawan Kumar Agarwal CEO, Food Safety and Standards Authority of India said that the new standards of food supplements are in the final stage of notification and will be shortly notified post Government approval. "About 60 percent of the industry players deal in food products. There have been concerns raised by the industry players, especially in some of the states. FSSAI is trying to find sustainable solutions to some of these problems," said Agarwal. Pawan Kumar congratulated IDSA... Next »
