The Government of Chhattisgarh has adopted and notified Direct Selling Guidelines 2017, paving way for regulatory and definitional clarity for Direct Selling in the state. By notifying these Guidelines, Chhattisgarh became the first state to adopt the Central Guidelines.

The Department of Consumer Affairs, Government of India had notified the Direct Selling Guidelines in 2016, a model framework on guiding principles for state governments to consider regulating Direct Selling and Multi-Level-Marketing. Government of India had advised the state governments to adopt the Guidelines to strengthen existing regulatory mechanism on Direct Selling and Multi-Level-Marketing, for preventing frauds and protecting the legitimate rights and interests of consumers.

“Indian Direct Selling Association welcomes the state guidelines on Direct Selling. We take this opportunity to thank the Government of Chhattisgarh for such a positive step. We also appreciate and thank the state Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Department for their efforts to notify the guidelines. The state Guidelines brings immediate relief to the Direct Selling Industry at the regulatory front. At the same time, these Guidelines also draws a line between legitimate Direct Selling business and Pyramid/ Fraudulent Schemes, which otherwise operated under the guise of Direct Selling”, said Vivek Katoch, Chairman Indian Direct Selling Association.

These Guidelines paves way for consumer protection and safety; a prime concern for the Direct Selling Industry too. In the absence of proper policy or guidelines, numerous fraudulent players have taken advantage of the situation in the past. However, the state Guidelines shall address the concerns of the Industry and provide much needed motivation.

“A very welcome development for the Direct Selling Industry. It is very encouraging that the Government of Chhattisgarh has made a decision to provide regulatory backing to Direct Selling Industry. IDSA acknowledges the support of the Government of Chhattisgarh and conveys heartiest thanks for giving stability to the Direct Selling in the state,” said Amit Chadha, Secretary General, IDSA.

The Department of Consumer Affairs, Government of India, stressed upon the need of a strong and exhaustive Consumer Protection Mechanism, during the recently concluded two-day international conference on Consumer Protection for East, South, Southeast and Asian nations. Prime Minister Narendra Modi said that the Government will soon enact a new Consumer Protection Act, keeping in view business practices and requirements of the country. The proposed Act, which will replace the Consumer Protection Act, 1986 lays great emphasis on consumer empowerment and is in line with the revised UN guidelines on consumer protection.
