employment oriented educational courses in curriculum. By introducing Direct Selling in academics, the students will be ensured of research-based education while also learning the nuances of the business.”

Rajinder Garg inaugurated the portal for admissions in Post Graduate Diploma in Direct Selling and said, “I congratulate IDSA & Shoolini University for starting a unique, employment-oriented course which links education with employment and would benefit the youth of the state and the rest of country.”

On the occasion Vice Chancellor Shoolini University Prof Atul Khosla said, “this is a wonderful effort to bring industry and academia together which will also generate employment.”

Rini Sanyal, IDSA Chairperson, said, “The launch of CEDSA will open a new chapter in the Direct Selling ecosystem in the country and we remain hopeful that other educational institutions also give a much-needed impetus on formal studies in Direct Selling business model. We have an exhaustive academic curriculum, and that CEDSA will be an incubator for Direct Selling in India.”

Based out of the University’s picturesque campus, this is the second such ‘Centre of Excellence’ globally, the other being the US-based DSEF (Direct Selling Education Foundation). CEDSA will also house the 2nd global research centre in Direct Selling, the other being Pekin University Research Centre in China. With the launch of CEDSA, IDSA has become the first Direct Selling Association in the world to facilitate a Diploma in Direct Selling in France.

“This is a
