Answer : The date of termination shall be provided or governed by the respective conditions of the contract executed between Direct Selling Entity and Direct Seller or by giving notice of reasonable period by either party say one month or as per the provisions of the Indian Contract Act.

8. Clause 6.2

The Direct Selling Entity shall be liable for grievances arising out of sale of products and services or business opportunity by the Direct Seller. And

Clause 6.3

“It will be the responsibility of the Direct Selling entity to monitor and control the practices/ methods adopted by the Direct Sellers.”

Does this mean that only the direct selling entity will be liable for all grievances arising out of sale of products and services or business opportunity by the direct seller?

Answer : It is clarified that the Direct Selling Entity will be responsible for the quality of products and services and it will guide and help the Direct Seller to follow best practices in the interest of consumers. The scope and specific liabilities of the Direct Seller in such cases will be defined in unambiguous terms in the contract signed. By way of providing in the contract, every Direct Selling Entity shall define and develop some mechanism to monitor the practices being adopted by its Direct Sellers.
